PATIENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Thank you for choosing Central Valley Indian Health, Inc. as your primary health care provider. We look forward to serving you in the most thorough and professional manner possible. As we enter into this healing partnership, we would like to emphasize the fact that you have certain rights and responsibilities as our patient. These rights and responsibilities help ensure an environment where true healing can take place. By being informed yourself and by keeping your provider informed on matters pertaining to your health, both you and the provider can work toward a common goal – preservation of health. With this partnership in healing concept in mind:

You have the right to:

1. Be treated with respect, consideration and dignity.
2. Be provided appropriate privacy.
3. Have your disclosures and records treated confidentially, and except when required by law, given the opportunity to approve or refuse their release.
4. Be provided, to the degree known, complete information concerning your diagnosis, evaluation, treatment and prognosis. When it is medically inadvisable to give such information to a patient, the information is provided to a person designated by the patient or to a legally authorized person.
5. Be given the opportunity to participate in decisions involving your health care, except when such participation is contraindicated for medical reasons.
6. Change your provider if another qualified CVIH provider is available.
7. File suggestions, complaints or grievances when you feel your rights have not been met. All suggestions, complaints and grievances should be reported to the Director of the Department you wish to discuss.
8. Request information regarding your health care professionals' credentials.

You have a responsibility to:

1. Provide complete and accurate information to the best of your ability about your health, any medications, including over-the-counter products, dietary supplements and any allergies or sensitivities.
2. Follow the treatment plan prescribed by your provider.
3. Provide a responsible adult to transport you home from the facility and remain with you for 24 hours, if required by your provider.
4. Inform your provider about any living will, medical power of attorney, or other directive that could affect your care.
5. Accept personal financial responsibility for any charges not covered by your insurance or CVIH.
6. Be respectful of all the health care providers and staff, as well as other patients.
7. Be sure you understand all oral and written instructions given by a CVIH provider.
8. Report any changes in your health.
9. Keep appointments or cancel at least 24 hours in advance.
10. Provide CVIH with current Medi-Cal, private insurance or other third party payer information at the time services are rendered.
11. Make payment for services provided on the day of your visit unless prior arrangements have been made.

As a partner in the healing process, I have read and understand The CVIH Patient Rights & Responsibilities.
